WEAVER'S INJURY TO HURT CHANCES OF CHICAGO TEAM

Right when the going become daily rougher and rougher, the White in the wounding of Buck Weaver, the out of the game for several weeks, mursing a broken index finger on his left hand.

Weaver is a peppery, aggressive performer in the infield. Moved over from shortstop, he has played as good ball at the hot corner as any man in the major leagues. Just when the drive for the pennant is becoming more and more strenuous, he is injured. The White Sox are certain to ONLY ELEVEN .300 suffer.

Alnemith attempted to reach third base when Johnson singled to right field in the third inning. Joe Jackson, one of the longest throwers in either big league, handed the ball over to Weaver in wonderful fashion, easily beating the runner. The um pire ruled Ainsmith out, but immediately changed his decision when he noticed that the Chicago player had dropped the ball.

Pitchers Are Weakening.

The White Sox pitchers seem weak sning under the strain. Faber was "without his stuff" yesterday and presented no terrors for the opposin batsmen. Joe Benz on the day previous was anything but a wonder. Cicotte pitched good ball in the first game here, but was beaten.

Johnson was applauded continu-ously by the smiling fans.

Ed Gharrity replaced Judge in the seventh without weakening the team.

Eddle Murphy came up for Mc-Mullin in the ninth, but availed nething whatever.

McMullin, relieving the injured Weaver, turned in one or two excel-lent bits of fielding.

Johnson had a field day, getting a single and two doubles in three times up. Hard ground would have made his doubles triples.

Charlie Risberg was brushed on the arm with one of Johnson's fast ones in the third, and seemed sur-prized that he was able to reach first base.

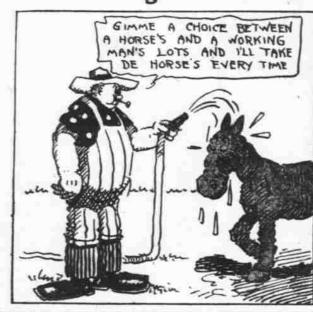

Chick Gandil was a target for the grumpy bugs in right field. The big fellow took it without quitting, but his ears must have been burning, for the fane told him things.

Eddie Collins lacked spirit, and ha too came in for some "riding" at the hands of the rooters. The for-mer Mackmen does not look like his old self this season in any way at aiding the American armies that are to "amek the world safe for democracy."

Charlie Ebbets is being credited with the idea and it has been taken up gladly by the members of his club. He contributed $500, equaled immediately by his players, to be used for the benefit of those of their team mates who might be drafted.

Two classes of athletes have been conspicuously the beautiful to the contribution of the boxes. In
